I have a feeling this rocket ship has stages and boosters to it....we're just leaving the first booster stage.

By using an Ape army to pile into GME, it feels like we have neutralized 2 or 3 of Citadel's biggest Capacitors/Buffers in their architecture....

Without those capacitors in play now, we should start seeing big price/voltage spikes in other areas of their circuit design....which we can amplify in bad directions for them to push towards a short circuit.

I just don't quite know what the layout looks like...

Regardless, I'm here to help load the ship.

Could these be

1. PFOF and dark pool netting. Can't longer frontrun when the share of total orders is slim, ppl take more care how and where they route and Vlad is impaled and forgotten. Further ppl watch in general so maybe not more of those void exchanges in relation.

2. dark pool netting in general when eyes are watching, one can or atleast should not do this as freely as before. Now those 6th street and whatever street in Austin makes sense, don't let the orders even hit the market, when you have your own blackmarket set up. JP, Stanley, they all there and close, bet they have some Intranet as well. Pretty easy to do with PFOF in my amateur view, I mean U can see who wants To buy what at what price.

YOU KNOW HOW A QUEUE WORKS, ever had the problem to login to LoL, as literally in league of legends? We here in EUW know. What if your position in the queue is resolving just slowly and the queue filling up faster on the back then releasing the pressure on the front?

behavior/information) and the mindpower(Mr Meinshausen and others) to make actionable sense of that Information, is breaking apart, because:

A. People stop listen to every Cramer/MarketWatch... instant pushnpull and start to get illuminated B. Don't Fall for FUD C. Act irrational. Can only scrape what is there to scrape. Much meme and HODL=bad input for model, logic in model no longer works as it was empirically calibrated to do. Just theory

In effect making these models useless or atleast need to be recalibrated. Further regulators and others are watching. Austin under FEDs watch...

Go back to point 2. what did retail do in the past? Buy high sell low. Trigger psychology with always the same tricks(minimal artificial price movement for us overlevered Degens) to cover for loss and get those IOU's back before anyone notices. I mean you could also see WHY they buy and even facilitate that to an extent.

4. ongoing CRE weakness, FED admittance but inflation pressures - corner. Problems to refinance / fair value deductions incoming that lead to insufficient collaterals. This matters because RE, collateral, rehypothecation and bundling and bundling that ponzi pyramid up. One thing is sure, it's very sensitive to rates, bond purchases and SOFR.

5. Margin Calls and bank bags Agents get unwilling to lend/ play in the scheme for fear of being caught and seeing others default and losses piling up on the Books.

Retail, dates and change needs time to have effect and play out. Next „big“ date is a twist on fate.

Side note, even tho IBKR also halted in Jan briefly, I never was affected and could buy first 29Jan spike.

Their wiki gives me important info about their relation to IEX and that might be one of the endplays/ good outcomes here.

Further the March video from Thomas Petterfy made me realize what was hidden before my open eyes. Go back to point 2. and 3.

I am not through the Real Estate who from who yet, but at this point I am not sure if I even want to see. And actually if the Elune savior is friend or in bed with foe. Because once connections were pretty tight eh, and when I think about KINGMAKER I really get the shakes. Maybe they are truly independent actors and I confuse some things. A king has powers to legitimate think about it.

Sry for my english im an Eurape I am in no way try to be cryptic I just don't know how to say it better. Also you must see some things with your own inner eyes = through learning and basic node formation in the brain. Start with a mindmap. I don't have the full picture at all.

I have a ton of research on the real estate part. If you need info, message me and I'll give you whatever connections I have on whatever companies.

Worth noting, we mapped a ton of tickers from ratio's previous post and they are all right on top of each other in the same area right next to UT of Austin. It's a well played scheme if Ken wasn't so sloppy and is actually caught now

I didn't, but especially the last 30 seconds gave me my tabula rasa moment, they tied together what I took from ALL DD, rap songs and prior knowledge.

Are the subs we call home lost (focusing on the wrong topics)? Saying that we're are lost and therefore can't help finding the hidden truth?

I do hope the sunsets on the other side of MOASS will be the most beautiful things my family and I will ever see.

What about comparing original picture with his profile pic and see what changes?
Similar to analyzing one of DFV's modified pictures
