Cryptic ON [OFF]

Shitpost 🐼

In my opinion RC finally being announced was just that. Some of you knew that was official over the weekend. Okay. Changes nothing in the short term. Just another in a series of moves.

Enjoy today. Rejoice. Meme. Eat a few crayons. Get wild, get freaky, get nasty(based on the DMs..some of you are and how)..but nothing changes. The 🚀 is still on the pad. Just topping off with fuel. Still final checks. Still a countdown.

Still Dips Ahead

It is important that you are no less 💎 🤝 tomorrow than you were today. Understood?

There are still bumps and stalls ahead. There are still deadlines. There are still options.

If nothing else..today should've reminded you that you are doing the damn thang! You've made it this far, you've held this long..you've established that you are a winner. Cool winner..how about you now set your eyes on that 🏆?!

Well done 🏠! Superb! 🦋 you are free to feed!

FFS I'm losing my mind! Too many DD posts and memes.

This is the game: <https://cyan.com/games/myst/> and I think it's available on Steam. But bear in mind I haven't played this since like 1990s, so it could be really bad and I just don't remember.

So what I can surmise and begin to realise is that GME is gold to poor old ennys eyes?

The threads we see unravel tell a tale of the mighty castle also know as citadel who may be prey to peasants who show their mighty presence

Outside the castle walls

The leaks of news from crows tell us all to hold poor old enny knows so burns his books of old

My interpretation of this is that much of the trading is being done in the dark pools, someone was watching and recorded it all/has the data dump? and now Kenny boiii is fucked? We get our tendies because each share is a blank check for whatever we want it to be?

§ 360.4 Administrative expenses.

The priority for "administrative expenses of the receiver", as that term is used in section 11(d)(11) of the Act (12 U.S.C. 1821(d)(11)), shall include those necessary expenses incurred by the receiver in liquidating or otherwise resolving the affairs of a failed insured depository institution. Such expenses shall include pre-failure and post-failure obligations that the receiver determines are necessary and appropriate to facilitate the smooth and orderly liquidation or other resolution of the institution.

One day before it was 360, 5 - then one day later it was 360,4.

It's days till some major event. Monday would be my bet.

Oh, and after I made this comment, in future posts the number after the decimal decremented, so it was a timer. So I'm not sure if 360.4 is important or if 360 is important and the number after the decimal is a countdown.
