Citadel has an office in Austin, Texas and UT alums and students have access to Shitadel's books. Trades on and off the books. SEC need to look into this.

It was undergrads during the pandemic. Building was under construction. They were cooking the books in the transfer and stealing more money then anybody can ever imagine SpaceX, Tesla, HP, Oracle and loads of others looking to make Austin the new Silicon Valley. Real Estate and Drexel have something to do with it all. If this turns out to be a fucking high school drama fest between Musk and Kenneth over someone shat in my future yard or something I will have lost all faith in humanity.
