No Ape Left Behind 'Memeber That

Shitpost

I'll get back to my in a bit..but for now.

They say every man is defined by his reaction to any given situation Well who would you want to define you? Someone else or yourself? Whatever you do, homie, give your heart to it And stay strong

There are still and over at sub that I shall not named. Regardless of what happened or why. No left behind.

How easy it is for a splinter to turn into a tear. How easy it is for a disagreement of ideals and philosophies to turn into accusations. How easy it is for a friend to become a foe.

"No Ape Left Behind" Do you remember? Or do you need a reminder?

I get it, many get it. Either that trench was infiltrated or the security around the perimeter was readjusted. Most won't know, nor do they.

I won't mention those mods by name..because I know that more than one wasn't using their main. I also know that those mods are also here...lurking..and finding peace for once. Also because I don't really give a fuck as long as no apes are left stranded or left to face the fud attacks alone.

The only way that apes could have gotten this far is by following the scent of other apes along the way.

No disrespect to those mods or these mods..but but mods haven't gotten you or me this far. or . The way I see it. If a mod knows that they can't handle contributing as a u/ and upholding sub guidelines, they should know how that will have a negative impact. If a mod can do or separate one from the other..that's the top of mod that reeks of leadership.

The less that apes care about WHO the mods are. The better. I think that we all need to take a moment to realize that.

No left behind. All aboard the to the moon ..right? That was the way..is it still?

Not so funny..but funny..how dumb we look. Like a bunch of fucking .

exactly what the shills would want. Exactly what Kenny and Melvies(shitty band names..but eh) would want. Tin fitted on tight..I'd swear that I read this playbook somewhere before. I'd swear that I saw this all of this being put together on r/gme_meltdown for awhile now. I'd swear that I and others have mentioned that. But that would be too good a story..eh..probably just another of my wild conspiracies.

All the DD done so far should inform an 🦍 as to why the best strategy is: Buy & 💎👉 Hold

🦍 are doing great when it comes to that. Very few 🗑️👉. As we can all see..it's working and eventually it will pay off. I'm proud. We should individually be proud of ourselves. We should feel proud as a whole.

But 🦍 have started to fuck up in an area or two. One of those is that all 🦍 matter. Positions large and small.

As this battle has continue to go on, it the stages upon which the battle plays out continues to shift. I don't think that many 🦍 are aware of that. As new character are introduced, so to are different moves and combos. I notice that many apes don't seem to understand the shift of the landscape and as such find themselves in unfamiliar territory.

As apes and whales add more information and show parts of the bigger picture, there are some apes who for whatever choice or reason who choose to see only that which directly relates to GME. That's fine. That's your prerogative. There are apes who have discovered how GME is one small piece to a much bigger puzzle and have found others in that community and now this one, who feel or think the same. There is nothing wrong with that. Not all apes are the same. Not all apes are or have to be here for the same reason so long as there is at least one reason that connects when it comes to 🚀.

Some of you may get what I'm saying, some of you may try to interpret what I mean..as long as it helps to reduce the growing tension of 🦍 vs. 🦍 and helps to re-unite m(in some way) 🦍. Cool because at the core..that's what I'm about.

Keep being you and keep being beautiful my fellow apes.

I'm just tryna live up to the meanin' of my name I'm just tryna live up to them apes in my gang I'm just tryna live up to my moment on the stage I'm just tryna live up to the truth in my pain And the power that they gave me in the youth of today

NO 🦍 NO 🐳 LEFT BEHIND

Huh..🤔 r/GME vs r/SuperStonk r/SuperStonk vs r/GME Those mods vs These Mods Those that stayed vs Those that left ...damn..you know...if I were to put on my fitted tin..I'd swear that what's going on is exactly what the shills would want. Exactly what Kenny and Melvies(shitty band names..but eh) would want. Tin fitted on tight..I'd swear that I read this playbook somewhere before. About time someone with some sense pointed this out...

You may have .000000001 or 1,000,000,000 shares. It does not matter. We are all one and take care of our brothers and sisters. United we stand divided the hedgies win. I know I am not loosing.

It doesn't seem like OP will be straightforward with his posts... I fully believe that all the breadcrumbs lead to somewhere, and that is for Apes to figure out. The more that Apes uncover, the more knowledgeable Apes are, and knowledge is power.

I mean for sure the more we uncover the more "dangerous" we get and I wouldnt be suprised if some computer and some UNI Did contain a bunch of data that would knock people out of this world but this writing is very chaotic and it just stands out as rather manic

I feel like the bulk of this post was merely for encouragement etc (hence: "I'll get back to my in a bit..but for now."). However there may have been a few tidbits thrown in regarding how GME relates to Eh EMM Sea and the other meme stocks in a bigger picture.

Great message though in here about unity and no ape left behind and ape don't fight ape.

There's a weird alternance between spelling out apes and using the emoji that has me wondering why he chooses so few spots to actually spell the word out and why so many ape emojis come in two. Also the potential typo after "re-unite" where he drops an m before the brackets seems off. The text is well structured and feels proof read so idk.
